1. When you receive your payment receipt via email, the subject of the email will be “Invoice Payment Confirmation”.
2. In the second line of your receipt email, you will see the word “receipt” which indicates that the attachment is a receipt and does not need paid.
3. You will see a line showing the total paid on this invoice. If full payment was not made, the remaining balance will be shown below the total paid.
4. This line will confirm that the email and attachment you have received are a receipt indicating payment was applied to your account.
